

Using The Internet as both a Teaching and Learning Tool
August 18th 1:00 - 4:00
Joliet Room 3rd Floor
Mac Lab W13

Agenda:

Introductions

- Procedure:
1. Assumption that you know your standards
 2. Use Web based activities to meet standards
 3. What The Internet Can Do For You

Web - Tour: Global school Network Internet Project Registry

<http://www.globalschoolhouse.com/pr/index.cfm>

Houghton Mifflin Project Center (Education Center)

<http://www.eduplace.com/projects/>

Search Webquest

<http://www.guilford.k12.nc.us/webquests/grade.html>

See if there is a quest you can use.

Apples! Apples! Webquest

<http://www3.guilford.k12.nc.us/webquests/Apples/apples.htm>

Publish your work On Your Site or Link To Another

Mrs. Nash's Second Grade Classroom

<http://www.execpc.com/~maknash>

Someone Else's Site (Collaborative Project)

Susan Silverman's Kids Learn.org

<http://www.kids-learn.org>

Create Interactive Quizzes and games for your sstudents

Quia

<http://www.quia.com>

Write Poetry in regards to your project

Poetry Break

<http://www.guilford.k12.nc.us/webquests/poetry/poetry.htm>

Create Wordsearches and puzzles

Puzzlemaker

<http://www.puzzlemaker.com>

Other MUST SEE WEBSITES

SCHOLASTIC NETWORK

<http://teacher.scholastic.com/index>

Babelfish

<http://www.babelfish.com>

Instant translations. Type in a sentence, click English to French, or English to Italian, then click translate!!!!!!!!!!

This site is very flexible. You can go to any page on the internet and have the page translated into any language.

I Keep Bookmarks

<http://www.ikeepbookmarks.com>

Store all bookmarks on the www and access them from any computer anywhere in the world!